Greenlaw Parish Register (743) This film covers Christenings 1699 – 1854, Marriages 1780-1854 and Burials 1780-1854 BUT: The majority of the entries are interspersed with the Kirk Session Records [records of the parish church] and will need some searching for. Marriages are quite often simply listed as an amount of Proclamation Monies paid [for proclaiming banns] and for Burials Mort Cloth Dues or the amount paid to the parish for using the cloth the body was wrapped in are not only an indication of burial but also of social status. In this parish there were first and second-class Mort Cloths made of velvet for the best with silver and gold clasps. PROBATE RECORDS see also WILLS

Wills before 1875 were proved in Commissariat Courts.

The areas covered by Commissariat Courts pre 1800 in Scotland relate to Church jurisdiction and not county borders so more than one Court can cover a County.

The Commissariat Court of Edinburgh had jurisdiction for the whole of Scotland and abroad and should also be checked.

These Testaments are for personal property only.

The Library has a complete set of Indexes for pre 1800 Commissariat Court Wills.

The Commissariat of Edinburgh was the main court and covered all of Scotland and overseas as well as the local area and should always be checked.	Fiche T11-T23
The Commissariat of Lauder covered all of the County of Berwick	Fiche T38
